

BOYS LOVE

---- Masuda A Tonima

Every boy has a dream,

A dream of having a garden,

A garden of his own;

Want himself as the gardener

And his love as the flower;

And he also wants the fragrance of the flowers to spread all over the world;

And let every damsal

And dismal feel it,

And wants all the beautiful things to be done with his garden,

Which will make his garden precious

Him precious

And his love precious

A very precious love

A love that will live forever.
