

Judio Christianity verses Christianity

(Nazma Mustafa)

The present Christianity was designed and decorated with manmade hand. At the beginning it was almost different. Now days we found a claim related Judeo-Christianity. This claim is more or less reasonable, not totally fraud. In first century C.E., some religious leaders, as for example Sadducees, did not believe in the resurrection. Jesus scolded them with the words, “you are mistaken, because you know neither the scripture nor the power of God” (Mathew 22:29). Interestingly, the Hebrew word rendered ‘intimacy’ is used at Amos 3:7, which says that the sovereign Lord Jehovah reveals his confidential matter’ to his servants. Abraham was one who enjoyed such closeness; Jehovah identified him as ‘my friend’ (Isaiah 41:8).

Jehovah also assures us that he “treats none with partiality nor accepts a bribe”. (Deuteronomy 10:17) He is completely free from all kind of bias or favoritism. “In every nation the man that fears him and works righteousness is acceptable to him” (Acts 10:34, 35). The western civilization is totally drowned in lot of unwanted issues like Sodom. When righteous Prophet Lot and his daughters arrived safely at the city of Zoar that Jehovah ‘made it rain sulphur and fire’ upon Sodom.(Genesis 19:22-24). All these instances reflected the laws; rules and punishments were to be affected by Lord himself in the scriptures that were revealed before. One can harmonize the manmade Pauline religion with the past reality.

Most of the Christians could not understand the forgery of their beloved saint known as ‘Saint Paul’. Jesus and his truth how miserably uprooted and fabricated by this saint. Most of them believe that the direct witnesses of Jesus history were true. The reality was that though it was understood but not true. After the second half of the second century, there was a struggle started between Judeo-Christianity and Pauline Christianity. Judeo Christianity was the original one although but the Pauline Christianity made a victory over the original truth.

“After Jesus departure, ‘the little group of Apostles’ formed a ‘Jewish sect that remained faithful to the form of worship practiced in the Temple’. However when the observances of converts from paganism were added to them, a 'special system' was offered to them, as it were: the council of Jerusalem in 49 A.D. exempted them from circumcision and Jewish observances; many Judeo-Christians were in conflict over the question of pagans who had turned to Christianity, (the incident of Antioch, 49 A.D.) 'For those Judeo-Christians who remained 'loyal Jews' Paul was a traitor: Judeo-Christians document call him an enemy, accuse him of 'tactical double-dealing', 'Until 70 A. D., Judeo-Christianity represents the majority of Church' and 'Paul remains an isolated case'. The head of the community at that time was James, a relation of Jesus. At the beginning Peter and John were with him. 'James may be considered to represent the Judeo-Christian camp, which deliberately clung to Judaism as apposed to Pauline Christianity'. Jesus' family has a very important place in the Judeo-Christian Church of Jerusalem." (The Bible, The Quran and Science written by Maurice Bucaille, chapter name was Historical reminder: Judeo-Christianity and Saint Paul, page 50-51, edition 2001)

The first hundred years churches were to be dominated by Judeo-Christianity. Everywhere this truth was flourished before Pauline Christianity. Letters of Paul was indirect conflicts started everywhere in Galatia, Corinth, Colossae, Rome and Antioch. (page - 51). The preserving technique of Semitics was still found in the churches of Ethiopia and Chaldea. (The Bible, The Quran and Science written by Maurice Bucaille, chapter name was Historical reminder: Judeo-Christianity and Saint Paul, page - 53). Actually Christianity grows from the Jewish origin. That's why the Jew clergyman hanged him on the cross. Now in modern time they are writing flattery books like this "Who killed Jesus" means that they are not liable for that. He Jesus simply for his own interest died on the cross for the salvation of the Christianity. Our prophet Muhammad faced the same acts of Quraishi heinous acts. Everywhere in every nation the so-called previous religious leaders always killed prophets. The same thing happens in history again and again in religions.

Although Christianity is a big size in body, not in mind but it is standing on a big zero. So if today any Jew think to make a bridge with Jewish sect related Christianity they all turn towards that big zero and can dig a great grave for them all. That means all are going to the zero dreamland not towards the truth not towards monotheism. Monotheism was once the original faith the only demand of these three religious sects, Jew, Christian and Islam. If they wish this gap will be bigger day by day and the difference of truth and religious gap would be more and more.
